

Canaan Azzi

Founder, Chairman & CEO
Blue Lotus Corporation

Canaan is the Founder, Chairman & CEO of Blue Lotus Corporation and the Founder Emeritus of Bombyx Mori Security Services, now a division of Blue Lotus. A mechanical designer, machinist, CAM programmer, architectural designer, 3D concept artist, brand/product designer, and inventor, Canaan's expertise spans multiple disciplines, blending technical mastery with visionary leadership.

A U.S. Army veteran and former private security contractor, Canaan built his career from the ground up, launching his executive journey at just 25 years old. Entirely self-made, his success is rooted in ingenuity, adaptability, and resilience, paired with a strong commitment to teamwork and strategic leadership. He believes in a hands-on approach, continuously learning and evolving to meet new challenges.

Beyond his business ventures, Canaan is deeply committed to charitable work, actively volunteering with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, local food pantries, the Knights of Columbus, and the Red Cross Disaster Action Team. A polyglot and published author, he thrives on lifelong learning and cultural exchange.

Canaan is also a sponsor of the Center for Veteran Artists, a non-profit founded by Chuck Palm (CIO Blue Lotus Corp) for the benefit of veterans struggling with PTSD. Reis. Azzi is also the founder of the Germaine Institute, a new non-profit dedicated to the rescue, treatment and education of children coming from severely abusive households and circumstances.

Guided by the principles of merit, mutual respect, and cooperation, Canaan emphasizes problem-solving through intellect and teamwork. His philosophy is simple: "Work through problems with your head, always listen to your people, and when you succeed, never forget to give back to those who helped you along the way."
